One who wants to get joy of book reading especially in very less time can go for it. About the Book Edward Gibbon, son of a Hampshire gentleman, was born at Putney, near London, April 27, 1737. After a preliminary education at Westminster, and fourteen unprofitable months at Magdalen College, Oxford, a whim to join the Roman church led to his banishment to Lausanne, where he spent five years, and acquired a mastery of the French language, formed his taste for literary expression, and settled his religious doubts in a profound scepticism. He served some years in the militia, and was a member of parliament. It was in 1764, while musing amidst the ruins of the Capitol of Rome, that the idea of writing The Decline and Fall of the city first started into his mind. The vast work was completed...
